Man Points Gun at Bar Patrons

On February 6, 2022 at approximately 7:30 PM, Manchester Police responded to Mi Jalisco Mexican Grill and Cantina at 300 S. Willow St in reference to an unwanted subject.

The caller told police there was a male inside the bar, flashing a handgun at other customers. A second caller reported that the individual had pointed the gun at her and she locked herself in the bathroom.

When the arriving officer entered the bar he saw a male meeting the description given by the callers. The man's hands were in his pocket and the officer gave loud, clear and concise commands to take his hands out of his pockets. The male was not initially cooperative, first taking his hands out of his pockets and immediately putting them back in. As police tried to take him into custody he struggled.

The male was identified as 30 year old Justin Worster of Manchester. He was found to have a gun on him. Worster was arrested and charged with Criminal Threatening with a Firearm, Disorderly Conduct, Reckless Conduct, and Resisting Arrest.

Worster is scheduled for arraignment today (2/7/22) in Hillsborough Superior Court – North.
